

Gaelle Bon

JONATHAN ARUNDEL

Born and raised in South of France Gaelle Bon began her styling career in Paris after studying fashion design at ESMOD. The fulfilling experience of assisting renowned Sheila Single gave Gaelle an early understanding of the requirements of a brand and an instinctive knowledge of enhancing beauty.

Combining clever deftly layering and stunning monochrome looks with her innovative and rigorous approach on volumes, movements, shapes and rhythm, Gaelle has brought her strong collaborations with great artists.

Her commercial clients include Chanel, Guerlain, Clarins, Repetto, Dior, JPG etc...In addition to her editorial works at Numero Tokyo, The Greatest, Vogue magazines, V magazine, Centrefold, Exhibition etc.... Gaelle recently challenged herself to the position of Fashion director at the promising Silhouette magazine.

